Dear Parents/Carers,

HIGH TIDE FESTIVAL

At the end of this month, Waltham Forest will be hosting a festival in the Festival Square, situated in Walthamstow Town Square Gardens next to Walthamstow Central Station.

Through sponsorship of an organisation called the Cartyne Trust we have been offered 30 free tickets available on a first come first served basis. To secure tickets you will need to email culture@walthamforest.gov.uk or call 0208 496 3602 with your name, address and number of tickets required so we can add you to the list which will ensure your entry. Your name will be held at the box office who will supply you with a ticket for entry. Without an RSVP and full details there is no guarantee you will be granted entry.

Tickets are available to the following three shows:

A Magical Musical Story Box - Sunday 8 October, 11am A Magical Musical Story Box is a newly devised music/theatre piece that engages children in a wonderful world of make-believe, song, percussion and physical movement. Showcasing the sounds of instruments from the world of jazz, A Magical Musical Story Box weaves improvisation, traditional song styles and the children's compositions of musician Sara Mitra around the storytelling gifts of Lottie Allen. Children are invited to join in with the dashing anti-hero Captain Wonkynose and his pirate crew as they explore the seven seas, hunt for treasure, battle sea monsters and get into some marvellous adventures along the way (for ages 0-7 years old).

Mrs H and the Sing-along band- Saturday 7 October, 11 am Mrs H and the Sing-along band bring their unique family music to the big top at HighTide. Their aim is provide quality music for children that adults will love too. Bringing together elements of Folk, Soul, Afro, Latin, Dub, comedy and theatre this unique band present the 'sing-along' with a new lease of life for all the family to join in with. Headed up by Mrs H on lead vocals and guitar, the all-star band includes members of Red snapper, Emily Barker and The Red Clay Halo, Beth Orton's band and The Leisure Society, on an array of instruments including guitars, banjos, double bass, accordion and trumpet (for ages 0-9 years old)

BeBop Baby- Saturday 30th September, 10am BeBop Baby is a daytime BeBop dance for all the family. It includes DJ sets from Nostalgia 77 & friends, the jaw-dropping Tongue Fu band with their freestyle rap, poetry & improvised music live, lively and colourful props and inventive musical play. (for all ages).

These events all look like great fun – so don't delay Book your ticket today!

Kind regards
